A SHARP GAME. - Yesterday morning Mr. Leonard Grover made complaint to Superintendent Richards, of the Metropolitan Police, that a young man named (4. B. Peterson, at the Mitchell Restaurant, adjoining Grover's Theatre, had purchased, with the aid of agents, a large number of Opera tickets at the ticket office of the theatre, at the usual rates, and having thus got a monopoly was re-seiling them at the restaurant at increased rates. Sergeant Tait proceeded to the restaurant, found Peterson selling tickets, and arrested and escorted him to the Second Ward station house, where the case was heard before Justice Boswell, Mr. C. D. Hess, acting manager of Grover's, appearing against the accused. The justice decided there was no law to hold the prisoner on the charge made, and therefore dismissed the case. The complainants will, it is understood, appeal to a higher court.

ASSAULT ON HIS WIFE -Sunday night, about 10 o'clock, James Riley, residing on south A street, near 5th street east, while drunk, assaulted his wife with an iron pot, severely bruising her and necessitating medical attendance. He was arrested by Sergeant Milstead and Officer Gordon, and was committed to jail by Justice Handy.

SHOT .- Sunday night, a soldier named Jas. McNovey was shot near the second precinct police station by the military patrol, for trying to evade the guard on being bailed. He was taken to the station-house by Serg't Johnson, and was afterwards sent to Campbell Hospital. It is believed he will recover.

ON DUTY .- Saturday morning, Superintendent Richards exhibited his readiness to do duty in person, arresting a man named Stephen Gordon, who was drunk on 7th street. The Superintendent, to prevent him doing mischief, carried him to the Third Ward station. Justice Thompson fined Gordon $2.
